

UK Expats #YourVoteMatters

Apply by post

At the 2015 General Election almost 106,000 people registered as overseas electors - the highest number ever!

Apply online

Register sooner rather than later.

If you aren't registered you can't vote.

It only takes 5 minutes

Do you qualify?

Overseas

UK nationals who have been registered to vote in the UK within the last 15 years can register as overseas electors, to be able to vote in UK Parliamentary General Elections, UK-wide referendums, and European Parliamentary elections.

Declare

You have to sign an annual declaration once you are registered to renew your registration every year. So if you were registered to vote for the 2015 General Election you will have to renew your registration with your local Electoral Registration Officer in the UK or register again.

Register

You will need to know your National Insurance number and date of birth, and have your passport to hand if you have one. If you don't have a National Insurance number you can still register, but you may have to supply more information to show who you are.

Vote

You can choose how you wish to vote. You can vote by post, by proxy (voting by appointing someone you trust to vote on your behalf), or even in person at your polling station.
